DON'T LET YOUR MIND WRITE THE WORST STORY.

When something goes wrong, our minds often rush to the worst possible conclusion.

- ? "What if it fails?"
- ? "What if they say no?"
- ? "What if everything goes wrong?"

But there is another question you can ask:

"What if it works?"

WORST CASE

Focuses on problems, fear and limitations.

BEST CASE

Focuses on possibilities, faith and opportunities.

- ✓ What if the opportunity opens?
- ✓ What if the right person shows up?

- ✓ What if the idea succeeds beyond your expectations?
- ✓ What if this challenge is actually preparing you for something greater?

Your thoughts shape what you see.
Choose thoughts that give possibility a chance.
